Dear Neighbors,

As fall rolls in, we're as committed to supporting our community as ever, and we're asking for your help. Whether you can give time, money, or some of both, no amount is too small! In this newsletter you'll find all sorts of ways to pitch in, whether for a one-off task or a regularly scheduled commitment.

We have a fun update from some neighbors who held a sidewalk bake sale, and donated their earnings to our Groceries & Essentials Fund. Last weekend, Brooklyn Community Cakes set up a stand in Clinton Hill offering lemon-themed goodies, and they were a hit: they sold out in less than 2 hours. They raised $200 for CHFGMA, and have generously pledged to donate future proceeds our way! You can follow them on Instagram @brooklyncakes to find out when they'll be out in the neighborhood next.

Whether or not you like to bake, there are many creative ways to raise funds that go back into your community. As always, every dollar donated to CHFGMA goes toward keeping our neighbors fed and cared for. We deeply appreciate Brooklyn Community Cakes and others who have raised funds to support our work. Anyone can do this, and if you have larger scale ideas, feel free to get in touch.
